Application for a grant from the Anglo-Israel Archaeological Society

The Anglo-Israel Archaeological Society was established in 1961 by Dr Richard Barnett, Dr Alec Lerner, Professor Yigael Yadin and Leon Shalit. In 2012 it will offer a small number of grants to encourage students in Great Britain to gain practical archaeological experience in Israel. These grants usually take the form of part or the whole of the cost of travel between the two countries. However, applications for other purposes within the general concerns of the Society will also be considered.

I enclose/attach a form for you to fill in when making your application to the Society. Please either address this to:

The Executive Secretary
Anglo-Israel Archaeological Society
2nd Floor, Supreme House
300 Regents Park Road
London N3 2JX

or, for preference, please e-mail it to: sheilarford1@sky.com

THIS FORM SHOULD REACH THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY BY WEDNESDAY 29th FEBRUARY 2012

Applications received after this date will not be considered.

Please note that we cannot process any application without two suitable references (see the form for details.) These can be e-mailed to the Executive Secretary and, in addition, a hard copy of the reference should be sent to the address above.

Grant applicants must be studying in the UK at the time of their application.

If a grant is offered and accepted, but subsequently the project does not materialize, would you please return the grant as soon as possible. This will not affect your status for applying again for a similar, other project. If the project is carried out, it is a condition of acceptance that a short report of about 500 words should be submitted for possible inclusion in the Society's Bulletin, Strata, by the end of December of the year in which the grant is used.

Yours sincerely

Sheila Ford
