STRATA: NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Strata requires all articles to be presented in line with the typographical conventions of the publication, which follows the basic form of the Harvard reference system. Within the text, references are made in brackets in the form of the author and date of publication, followed by page numbers, e.g. (Aharoni 1979: 44-52). The full reference is to be given in the bibliography at the end of the article, as follows:

Book:

Aharoni, Y., (1979). The Land of the Bible, A Historical Geography (London).

Article:

Naveh, J., (1989). 'The Aramaic and Hebrew Inscriptions from Ancient Synagogues', Eretz-Israel 20: 302-310 (Hebrew).

Chapter:

Gibson, S., (2001). 'Agricultural Terraces and Settlement Expansion in the Highlands of Early Iron Age Palestine: Is There a Correlation Between the Two?' Pp. 113-146 in A. Mazar (ed.), Studies in the Archaeology of the Iron Age in Israel and Jordan (Sheffield).

An abstract of no more than 150 words should be included at the beginning.

The article can be divided between headings and sub-headings. The headings should be in bold, while the sub-headings should be in italics.

Please note additionally:

- An article should be submitted in British English spelling, not American, e.g. artefacts, not artifacts.
- There are endnotes rather than footnotes.
- Please use 12 point Times New Roman font and single line spacing.
- Transliterate Hebrew, Greek or Arabic and other languages into English letters unless it is essential to have the original characters (e.g. in an inscription).
- Greek, Latin, Aramaic, Hebrew or Arabic terms in English are to be italicised: in situ, tesserae, miqveh.
- Authors may use BCE/CE, or BC/AD, as they prefer, but usage must be consistent.
- Roman period, Byzantine period with a lower-case 'p'.
- Figure numbers to be preceded by full stop and space: Fig. 5.
- Single quotes are to be used: 'Gaza School'.
- Extensive quotes to be set as a separate paragraph 1 pt lower font size than main body text (no quote marks).
- Biblical quotes: use fuller form of abbreviation, e.g. Isa. 11: 2-3; Mark 5: 5.
- Dates should be formatted as per these examples: 1990-96; 15 June 2007.
- Use numerals for centuries, e.g. 'the 12th century'
- Measurements: largest digit first with space after number: 90 × 20 cm, using the metric system: m, cm, mm without full-stops.
- Numbers at the beginning of a sentence should be written out in full, e.g. Twenty men went off to war.
- Do not hyphenate directions, e.g. use 'southwest', 'northeast' etc.
- Please follow Loeb editions in citations of Josephus.

Kindly note that for book reviews, the preferred length is 500-800 words, except for an edited collection, in which case 1,000-1,200 words in total is acceptable. Please send all images as separate TIF files, with a minimum of 300dpi. Footnotes are not accepted. It is the responsibility of authors to obtain copyright permission for all illustrations and Strata takes no responsibility for any copyright infringements.

Article submissions should be formatted as a MS Word document and sent to the editors David Jacobson and Rachael Sparks at AIAS-strata@hotmail.com.
Book reviews should be sent to Kimberley Czajkowski at k.czajkowski@ed.ac.uk.
